

Training Awareness Environment policy

The company requires training to have awareness and ability to operate without causing or affecting the environment policy and to be able to operate in accordance with the policy, objectives, environmental goals set.

- New employees who have not been trained Will require training within 3 months of coming to work
- All employees who have been trained Will have repeated training every year At least 1 time per year